

Bunni Pounds

With over nine years of experience in Republican Party fundraising and campaign management, Bunni Pounds has raised over $6 million dollars for Congressional candidates. She has led one of the best campaign organizations in Texas gaining a reputation as a visionary, meticulous administrator, and an avid fundraiser serving clients such as Congressman Jeb Hensarling, Senator Van Taylor, Congresswoman Mia Love, Texas Eagle Forum, and even local candidates such as Bill Waybourn for Tarrant County Sheriff.

Bunni's experience doesn't just stop at politics. She has eleven years managing two small businesses, five years in non-profit management, and has orchestrated corporate business meetings, concerts, and Christian ministry events from conception to execution. She now leads a group of servant leaders as the President of Bunni Pounds & Associates taking her political, business, and ministry experience to the next level to help more clients fulfill their goals.

Her and her husband are also church planters - leading a house church in their home over the last seven years called Reality Community. Out of their church, they fund foreign missions all over the world and produce discipleship materials from their publishing company, Reality Creations Publishing. Bunni has a worship project out called Teach Us to Pray and has published two full length Bible Study books called Kingdom Life Discipleship Unit 1 & 2.

She loves to speak about how to be a thriving Christian in the midst of the Political World, Grassroots Activism- The Power of a Team, Women in Politics & Ministry, Leadership in Our Turbulent World, Business & Marketplace Ministry, Prayers That Makes Global Impact, Intimacy with Jesus, and the Call to Disciple the Nations (Including our Nation).
