

Texas Eagle Forum

November 2018

Dear Eagles,

Greetings and Happy Thanksgiving! After what seemed like a never-ending election season, it is good to finally know the outcome. We had some hard losses—too many in fact—but we at Texas Eagle Forum will continue our mission to stand strong, hold the line for conservative values, and work to ensure hope and liberty in Texas.

We can now say farewell to months of debate, social media temper tantrums, and even physical attacks on conservatives, and look to the future. We need leaders of industry, education, media, and especially the church, who are willing to speak truth with boldness and conviction. The Left's "tolerance" legacy has been obliterated, and we, as a nation, have had enough. Let's strive to be lights in our communities and work together to navigate our way back to a free and Spirit-lead nation.

Preparing for the 86th Texas Legislative Session, which begins in January, there has been much thought and prayer over what we at TEF will be focusing on in the coming year. We have the opportunity to work on many important initiatives that we believe will help build strong families and a strong state. With some losses in the Texas Senate, we may be hard-pressed to see property tax relief, and other key items on our agenda may also be hard-fought battles. But, if we pull together, WE can send a message to Austin, reminding them we are still engaged and ready to work!

Over the next several months, I will have the pleasure of introducing several new TEF board members, along with the hard-working leaders who have kept this engine running for years. These leaders will be heading up our new initiatives. Some of our projects are already rolling, like our "Be The Voice" Campaign against human trafficking, while other initiatives are still "top secret." Watch for our "Monday Top 5" emails to know what is up our sleeve!

Please be battle-ready for the upcoming session—we need all hands on deck! Follow us on social media, give us your feedback, and leave comments on our our website. Make sure you "like" our pages on social media, sign up to receive our weekly emails and action items, and pass this important information on to your circle of influence.

On our website, www.texaseagle.org, we list a number of talented speakers available to speak to your local groups, and new people will be added as time goes by. We will also spotlight local groups making a difference, and who would be helpful for forming a "battle plan" to keep your area strong and conservative... or in winning it back!

As we prepare for Thanksgiving, may this be a season of refreshing! I love this time of year and can't think of a better time to come together as family, friends, fellow Texans, and Americans, to thank God for all the blessings He has poured out on us!

Pressing onward,

Trayce Bradford
President of Texas Eagle Forum

P.S. As we head into the end of the year, please consider a generous financial gift to TEF or TEEF. Thank you in advance for helping us continue to stand in the gap for Texas families!
